President of Seminary to Speak at Riverview Presbyterian Church

Dr. Michael A. Milton to teach at Riverview Presbyterian Church, in Charleston, WV.

[Charlotte, NC—November 11, 2009]—Dr. Michael A. Milton, President and Professor of Practical Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte, NC, will be preaching at Riverview Presbyterian Church, in Charleston, WV from Friday, November 13 through Sunday, November 15. Friday and Saturday services will begin at 7 pm, and Sunday services will be held at 11 am and 6 pm. The theme for the messages will be Jonah’s Message for the Mission of the Church Today.

Dr. Milton is excited to be in beautiful West Virginia to preach at Riverview and to be with Pastor David Currence.

Former Senior Pastor of the historic First Presbyterian Church of Chattanooga, Tennessee, Milton also founded two churches and a school. Prior to his call to the ministry, he was an executive with two Fortune 500 companies, and a top-secret linguist in the Navy. He accepted the call to become President of Reformed Theological Seminary in November 2007. Dr. Milton is the author of nine books including his autobiography What God Starts, God Completes: Help and Hope for Hurting People (Christian Focus Publications, 2007). His teaching can be heard on select radio stations in the U.S. and over the Internet at www.thecall.rts.edu. Milton often illustrates his sermons with original songs and has released two CDs on the label Music for Missions called “He Shall Restore” and “Follow Your Call” available through iTunes. He resides in the Charlotte area with his wife and son.

Reformed Theological Seminary is one of the largest seminaries in the nation, with campuses in Charlotte, Jackson, Orlando, Atlanta, and Washington, D. C. The seminary, which began in 1966, ministers to almost 3,000 students from over 60 denominations. The Virtual Campus of RTS offers a fully accredited Masters of Arts through distance education.
